vs. : Criminal No.: 05-CR-083-001-SLR
DAVID DONALDSON, :
Defendant. :

MOTION FOR TRANSCRIPT OF SENTENCING

AND NOW COMES the Defendant David Donaldson appearing in Pro Se and respectfully moves the Honorable Court for a full and complete copy of his sentencing Transcript before Honorable Sue L. Robinson on or around March 15, 2006. In support thereof the defendant states as follows:

(a) The above referenced document is essential and peculiar towards the appeal and chances are material omission of downward departure factors were known to the court and counsel represented the defendant, however, was not presented for argument properly; and

(b) The Defendant wants to use the transcript to ascertain facts already presented especially whether counsel argued that he could have gotten a Probation under Chapter 5B1.1 of the Federal Sentencing Guidelines, thus, treaming down his Zone to a given Zone B or C so as to permit that requirement that satisfy a Probation as an alternative to incarceration;

(c) The Defendant was convicted and sentenced in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. Section 1029(a)(5) and (b)(2). Therefore, wants to declare on appeal and/or post conviction that his sentence was unreasonable.

In U.S. v. Banks, (M.D. Pa) (1974), 369 F.Supp 951(Indigent is entitled to trial transcript for appeal purpose).

WHEREFORE, for the reasons above and any that may become apparent to the court, the defendant respectfully prays that his Sentencing transcript be issued and mailed to him herein.

Dated. 6/7, 2006.

Respectfully submitted,

David Donaldson
